			(f) approval of the interim, final accounts and related reports to ASX; (g) specific matters in relation to continuous disclosure as defined in the Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy; and (h) other matters as the Board may determine from time to time. The Company is committed to the circulation of relevant materials to Directors in a timely manner to facilitate Directors' participation in Board discussions on a fully informed basis. The Company intends to regularly review the balance of responsibilities between the Board and management to ensure that the division of functions remains appropriate to the needs of the Company and the Group.
1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive, or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Yes Yes	The Company undertakes background checks with regards to the person's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history prior to nomination for election as a Director. Any material adverse information revealed by these checks is released to security holders prior to the general meeting at which they are able to be elected. When an individual is nominated to be a Director, their curriculum vitae with their relevant professional history and qualifications is included in the explanatory memorandum to the notice of meeting provided to the Company's security holders.
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	Directors are given letters of appointment and/or service agreements, and senior executives are given employment contracts prior to their engagement by the Company.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Company Secretary was appointed by and is responsible to the Board through the Chairman. The Chairman and the Company Secretary coordinate the Board agenda.
1.5	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period:	No	The Company, at its current size and stage of development, has not found it necessary to create a diversity policy or to annually report on measurable objectives with respect to gender diversity. As the Company develops, the Board intends to review its practices, and if deemed necessary in the future, the Board may consider adopting a diversity policy.

	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; 2. the entity’s progress towards achieving those objectives; and 3. either: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> A. the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined “senior executive” for these purposes); or B. if the entity is a “relevant employer” under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity’s most recent “Gender Equality Indicators”, as defined in and published under that Act. 	N/A N/A
1.6	A listed entity should: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period. 	No Yes	The Company has not found it necessary to disclose the process for evaluating the performance of the Board, its committees and individual Directors. As denoted in the Board Charter, however, performance evaluations will be undertaken annually by the Board. A copy of the Board Charter is available on the Company’s website at the following URL: http://www.n1holdings.com.au/corporate-governance The Company undertook a performance appraisal of each Director and the board as a whole during the financial year ended 30 June 2023.
1.7	A listed entity should: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period. 	Yes Yes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The Company undertakes an annual evaluation of the performance of senior executives. The process includes: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (i) measuring performance against key performance indicators; and (ii) one-on-one meetings. (b) A performance evaluation of senior executives was undertaken during the financial year ended 30 June 2023 in accordance with the Company’s performance evaluation process.

2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Yes N/A Yes	The Board has reviewed the position and associations of each of the Company's Directors and has determined that Mr David Holmes and Mr Frank Ganis are independent. In making this determination the Board has had regard to the independence criteria in the ASX Principles and Recommendations, and other facts, information and circumstances the Board considers relevant. The Board assesses the independence of new directors upon appointment and reviews their independence, and the independence of directors, as appropriate. Information with respect to potential issues of independence may be disclosed to the market but no formal policy exists to ensure such disclosure. The Company has disclosed the details of each Director (including their length of service) in its annual report for the financial year ended 30 June 2023 (FY23 Annual Report).
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	No	The Board considers Mr David Holmes and Mr Frank Ganis to be independent Directors. The Board does not currently consider an independent majority of the Board to be appropriate given the Company considers at least two (2) Directors need to be executive directors for the Company to be effectively managed. The Board considers that as half of the Board are comprised of independent Directors, this is sufficient for the Company's size and extent of its operations. The Board has taken the following steps to structure the Board to be effective and add value despite not having an independent majority of Directors: (a) membership of the Board is focused on providing the Company with a broad base of industry, business, technical, financial and corporate skills and experience considered necessary to fulfil the business objectives of the Company; and (b) membership of the Board is reviewed on an on-going basis by the Chairman of the Board to determine if additional core strengths are required to be added to the Board in light of the nature of the Company's business and its objectives.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	No	The Board's current Executive Chairman, Mr Ren Hor Wong, does not satisfy the criteria of being an independent director as specified in the ASX Principles and Recommendations. However, the Board considers Mr Wong's role as Executive Chairman as essential to the success of the Company in its current stage, where the Company continues to refine its focus on the strategic development of the business.

2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	No	The Company does not have a formal induction program for new directors. Nevertheless, the Company takes care in ensuring that Directors will be able to effectively manage and govern the Company before their nomination as potential directors. In addition, each new director of the Company will, upon appointment, participate in an induction programme. This will include meeting with members of the existing Board, the Company Secretary, management and other relevant executives to familiarise themselves with the Company, its procedures and Board practices and procedures. This procedure is outlined in the Board Charter, which is available on the Company's website at http://www.n1holdings.com.au/corporate-governance
